

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE
E. ROSEWATER, Editor.
PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Assuming that Senator Teller is authorized to speak for the silver men of the senate, it is their intention not to permit any financial legislation at this session of congress which does not give the fullest recognition to silver.

These advocates of what they call the "remonetization" or the "rehabilitation" of silver propose to take every possible advantage of the financial exigency to further their policy, and if that cannot prevail they intend that nothing else shall.

That bill to reimburse the three state "impeachables" promises to be the Banquo's ghost of all future Nebraska state legislatures.

Glass cartwheel dollars are being shoved off upon the unsuspecting people of this community. The bankers protest. They want a more elastic currency.

That presidential message was prepared on Sunday. Here is something higher than the Sunday newspapers for the Sabatarians extremist to strike at.

A list of all property in this city and county now exempt from tax assessment would afford very interesting reading. Here is a rich field for taxpayers and municipal leagues.

Omaha will not draw the line at theaters. It will take all the new theaters it can get, but it will also welcome every new factory and every new enterprise of any kind that may come here.

There is business here awaiting a great barrel factory. Its success may be assured from the outset. In fact, there is no better location in the west than Omaha for manufacturing enterprises.

One piece of important legislation is already assured the people of Nebraska by the present legislature. An amendment to the constitution increasing the number and pay of justices of the supreme bench is bound to be submitted in some form for the approval of the voters.

Had Secretary Ladden of the state relief commission made public the daily receipts and disbursements of the commission he would have disarmed much criticism. The demand for such daily publication can not be taken as a reflection upon his integrity. It is simply a business proposition.

Dr. Parkhurst asserts that he enjoyed his visit to Chicago and hopes to repeat it many times. He ought to take some of his prominent fellow New Yorkers along with him the next time he comes west and let them have some of their New York provincialism knocked off by coming in contact with a Chicago environment.

If, as has been so positively claimed, the authorities of Holt county have evidence implicating a large number of men in the murder of Barrett Scott, it is not high time that the suspected parties be arrested and placed in custody and arraigned for preliminary examination? The guilty parties ought not to escape through official neglect or delay.

Query: Will the Douglas county fair next fall be held on the new state fair grounds or will it be again located on the old site? The natural presumption is that the two fairs will be merged, but the assessors of really hereabouts have not been so informed, nor have they been officially notified to assess the old race track property owned by private parties.

Despite the dull season the State Manufacturers and Consumers association is forging ahead, frequently scoring fresh triumphs and always active in spreading the doctrine whose chief tenet is the paragonage of home industries. When the day comes, as it is doubtless, that business shows a marked revival this vigorous organization will be in position to do the most effective work of its existence.

The ladies of the Home for the Friendless would not be so ungallant as to discriminate against the members of the upper branch of the legislature, and so they have entertained the senators at lunch as well as the lower house members. As Governor Holcomb has a veto on appropriation bills, the governor ought to be the next to be invited to partake of the hospitality of the home.

The peculiar feature of all the harrowing tales of destitution in Nebraska and of the piteous appeals for contributions that are appearing in eastern newspapers is the total omission of names and the complete neglect to locate people and places so that the statements may be verified. A story that is so indefinite as to the characters playing roles in it that it might be applied to any state in the union must be put down at once as manufactured out of the whole cloth. It is simply that amazing that reputable journals will print stuff that on its face presents every indication of pure fiction and not a single evidence of truth.

WILL NOT COMPROMISE. Assuming that Senator Teller is authorized to speak for the silver men of the senate, it is their intention not to permit any financial legislation at this session of congress which does not give the fullest recognition to silver.

These advocates of what they call the "remonetization" or the "rehabilitation" of silver propose to take every possible advantage of the financial exigency to further their policy, and if that cannot prevail they intend that nothing else shall.

That bill to reimburse the three state "impeachables" promises to be the Banquo's ghost of all future Nebraska state legislatures.

Glass cartwheel dollars are being shoved off upon the unsuspecting people of this community. The bankers protest. They want a more elastic currency.

That presidential message was prepared on Sunday. Here is something higher than the Sunday newspapers for the Sabatarians extremist to strike at.

A list of all property in this city and county now exempt from tax assessment would afford very interesting reading. Here is a rich field for taxpayers and municipal leagues.

Omaha will not draw the line at theaters. It will take all the new theaters it can get, but it will also welcome every new factory and every new enterprise of any kind that may come here.

There is business here awaiting a great barrel factory. Its success may be assured from the outset. In fact, there is no better location in the west than Omaha for manufacturing enterprises.

One piece of important legislation is already assured the people of Nebraska by the present legislature. An amendment to the constitution increasing the number and pay of justices of the supreme bench is bound to be submitted in some form for the approval of the voters.

Had Secretary Ladden of the state relief commission made public the daily receipts and disbursements of the commission he would have disarmed much criticism. The demand for such daily publication can not be taken as a reflection upon his integrity. It is simply a business proposition.

Dr. Parkhurst asserts that he enjoyed his visit to Chicago and hopes to repeat it many times. He ought to take some of his prominent fellow New Yorkers along with him the next time he comes west and let them have some of their New York provincialism knocked off by coming in contact with a Chicago environment.

If, as has been so positively claimed, the authorities of Holt county have evidence implicating a large number of men in the murder of Barrett Scott, it is not high time that the suspected parties be arrested and placed in custody and arraigned for preliminary examination? The guilty parties ought not to escape through official neglect or delay.

Query: Will the Douglas county fair next fall be held on the new state fair grounds or will it be again located on the old site? The natural presumption is that the two fairs will be merged, but the assessors of really hereabouts have not been so informed, nor have they been officially notified to assess the old race track property owned by private parties.

Despite the dull season the State Manufacturers and Consumers association is forging ahead, frequently scoring fresh triumphs and always active in spreading the doctrine whose chief tenet is the paragonage of home industries. When the day comes, as it is doubtless, that business shows a marked revival this vigorous organization will be in position to do the most effective work of its existence.

The ladies of the Home for the Friendless would not be so ungallant as to discriminate against the members of the upper branch of the legislature, and so they have entertained the senators at lunch as well as the lower house members. As Governor Holcomb has a veto on appropriation bills, the governor ought to be the next to be invited to partake of the hospitality of the home.

The peculiar feature of all the harrowing tales of destitution in Nebraska and of the piteous appeals for contributions that are appearing in eastern newspapers is the total omission of names and the complete neglect to locate people and places so that the statements may be verified. A story that is so indefinite as to the characters playing roles in it that it might be applied to any state in the union must be put down at once as manufactured out of the whole cloth. It is simply that amazing that reputable journals will print stuff that on its face presents every indication of pure fiction and not a single evidence of truth.

A combination will easily be able to defeat repeal, with the short time that remains of this congress, so that the remark of Mr. Reed that no one expected the bill to become a law was significant. If it falls there is reason to fear that the end of the hostile policy of European governments toward American products has not been reached.

Our meats are now excluded from most of the markets of continental Europe, unfriendly action on the part of only a few more countries being necessary to shut them out from that part of the world altogether. There is a strong demand from the agricultural production of Germany, France and other countries for better protection against the competition of American products which those governments are not disposed to ignore.

AN ADMONITION FROM WYOMING. Governor Richards of Wyoming has sent a special message to the legislature of that state urging a material reduction in the salaries of all the appointive state officers. He has taken this way to show the people that he appreciates the financial hardships which they have undergone and are still undergoing.

Under salaries in all private establishments are suffering a severe shrinkage, bringing them down to the basis of the reduced cost of living, he sees no reason why the pay of state officers should remain unchanged.

While this is going on in Wyoming the only measures affecting state officers that are being considered by the Nebraska legislature are bills either increasing existing salaries or creating entirely new ones.

It ought not to remain for the hackmen themselves to protest against reducing the fee for hackmen's licenses from $10 to $5.

The populist senators will in a day or two, so soon as the new members elected to fill vacancies from Montana and Wyoming assume their duties, hold the balance of party power in the senate. The next question is, What do they propose to do with it?

A CHARTY BALL—WHY NOT? The suggestion is offered by one of The Bee's subscribers that Omaha should have a charity ball this winter. In other cities the charity ball is the annual event in the best social circles, its recurrence being looked forward to not only by the needy, but also by the leading devotees of fashionable society.

It has a mighty pull. The strength of the organization behind the Nicaragua canal bill is indicated by the fact that the proposition to virtually donate the entire $100,000 was pushed through the senate in the face of a loud protest.

Another idol shattered. One by one our brightest idols are shattered. Here comes the Agricultural bureau at Washington with the startling statement that the peanut is not a nut at all, but a bean. The hand of Boston may be seen in this the last straw, and the great American people will not hear it.

Mules Men Must Pay Up. There will be no regret over a decision of the supreme court handed down Monday. A firm in Mills county bought liquor in Omaha, received it, consumed it and then sought to escape payment by setting up the claim that the sale was unlawful in the first place.

Another idol shattered. One by one our brightest idols are shattered. Here comes the Agricultural bureau at Washington with the startling statement that the peanut is not a nut at all, but a bean. The hand of Boston may be seen in this the last straw, and the great American people will not hear it.

Mules Men Must Pay Up. There will be no regret over a decision of the supreme court handed down Monday. A firm in Mills county bought liquor in Omaha, received it, consumed it and then sought to escape payment by setting up the claim that the sale was unlawful in the first place.

Another idol shattered. One by one our brightest idols are shattered. Here comes the Agricultural bureau at Washington with the startling statement that the peanut is not a nut at all, but a bean. The hand of Boston may be seen in this the last straw, and the great American people will not hear it.

Mules Men Must Pay Up. There will be no regret over a decision of the supreme court handed down Monday. A firm in Mills county bought liquor in Omaha, received it, consumed it and then sought to escape payment by setting up the claim that the sale was unlawful in the first place.

Another idol shattered. One by one our brightest idols are shattered. Here comes the Agricultural bureau at Washington with the startling statement that the peanut is not a nut at all, but a bean. The hand of Boston may be seen in this the last straw, and the great American people will not hear it.

interference is the always-to-be-avoided monster. Government interference by its militia and policeman to overawe strikers at the request of corporations, however, is not at all socialistic. On the contrary, it is the only thing to be done in the estimation of all rascals of this class. It makes a great deal of difference with the purveyors of socialistic highbears, whether the government interference is with the military or the civil authorities.

It is very questionable whether the right to use the streets of Omaha for the operation of slot machines to dole out lemonade, pop and ginger ale, which the city council has sought to confer upon the Woman's Christian Temperance union, is not a franchise requiring, to be valid, the procedure prescribed by the charter for the granting of franchises. No one doubts the good motives behind the Woman's Christian Temperance union in this matter, or that any profits which it may derive will not go to worthy charities, yet the patentee of the slot machine must expect to get a profitable royalty out of its use, and so far as he is concerned the city is giving away something of value.

As was to have been expected the charges preferred by a discharged employe of the engineer's department against City Engineer Rosewater have fallen flat. The council committee to which they were referred for investigation has reported that the testimony taken did not disclose sufficient evidence to substantiate the allegations.

It ought not to remain for the hackmen themselves to protest against reducing the fee for hackmen's licenses from $10 to $5. The revenue from these licenses goes to the support of the public schools. The school board has been complaining loudly of a lack of funds, but it has never taken any action to protect its revenue from miscellaneous licenses.

The populist senators will in a day or two, so soon as the new members elected to fill vacancies from Montana and Wyoming assume their duties, hold the balance of party power in the senate. The next question is, What do they propose to do with it?

A CHARTY BALL—WHY NOT? The suggestion is offered by one of The Bee's subscribers that Omaha should have a charity ball this winter. In other cities the charity ball is the annual event in the best social circles, its recurrence being looked forward to not only by the needy, but also by the leading devotees of fashionable society.

It has a mighty pull. The strength of the organization behind the Nicaragua canal bill is indicated by the fact that the proposition to virtually donate the entire $100,000 was pushed through the senate in the face of a loud protest.

Another idol shattered. One by one our brightest idols are shattered. Here comes the Agricultural bureau at Washington with the startling statement that the peanut is not a nut at all, but a bean. The hand of Boston may be seen in this the last straw, and the great American people will not hear it.

Mules Men Must Pay Up. There will be no regret over a decision of the supreme court handed down Monday. A firm in Mills county bought liquor in Omaha, received it, consumed it and then sought to escape payment by setting up the claim that the sale was unlawful in the first place.

Another idol shattered. One by one our brightest idols are shattered. Here comes the Agricultural bureau at Washington with the startling statement that the peanut is not a nut at all, but a bean. The hand of Boston may be seen in this the last straw, and the great American people will not hear it.

Mules Men Must Pay Up. There will be no regret over a decision of the supreme court handed down Monday. A firm in Mills county bought liquor in Omaha, received it, consumed it and then sought to escape payment by setting up the claim that the sale was unlawful in the first place.

Another idol shattered. One by one our brightest idols are shattered. Here comes the Agricultural bureau at Washington with the startling statement that the peanut is not a nut at all, but a bean. The hand of Boston may be seen in this the last straw, and the great American people will not hear it.

Mules Men Must Pay Up. There will be no regret over a decision of the supreme court handed down Monday. A firm in Mills county bought liquor in Omaha, received it, consumed it and then sought to escape payment by setting up the claim that the sale was unlawful in the first place.

Another idol shattered. One by one our brightest idols are shattered. Here comes the Agricultural bureau at Washington with the startling statement that the peanut is not a nut at all, but a bean. The hand of Boston may be seen in this the last straw, and the great American people will not hear it.

Mules Men Must Pay Up. There will be no regret over a decision of the supreme court handed down Monday. A firm in Mills county bought liquor in Omaha, received it, consumed it and then sought to escape payment by setting up the claim that the sale was unlawful in the first place.

Another idol shattered. One by one our brightest idols are shattered. Here comes the Agricultural bureau at Washington with the startling statement that the peanut is not a nut at all, but a bean. The hand of Boston may be seen in this the last straw, and the great American people will not hear it.

St. Louis Republic (dem.). One advantage is on the side of the president. He knows his own mind and is ready to do something. Cleveland will come with that grace from democrats, republicans, national bankers or bullion sellers, who cannot join in promoting a practical solution of the difficulties.

Denver Republican (rep.). Folly, falsehood and knavery run a neck-and-neck race in the message sent to congress by President Cleveland yesterday urging the enactment of a law for a new issue of $250,000,000 of 3 per cent bonds, payable, principal and interest, in gold, of the present standard weight and fineness, in five years, to take up and cancel the existing legal tender notes.

Chicago Tribune (rep.). The president's present plan is sound and it is the only sensible plan that will insure immediate relief. Representative Chapman has introduced a bill to carry it into effect, and it is to be hoped that the republicans in congress will be able to support it.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

CLEVELAND AND CURRENCY REFORM. St. Louis Republic (dem.). One advantage is on the side of the president. He knows his own mind and is ready to do something. Cleveland will come with that grace from democrats, republicans, national bankers or bullion sellers, who cannot join in promoting a practical solution of the difficulties.

Denver Republican (rep.). Folly, falsehood and knavery run a neck-and-neck race in the message sent to congress by President Cleveland yesterday urging the enactment of a law for a new issue of $250,000,000 of 3 per cent bonds, payable, principal and interest, in gold, of the present standard weight and fineness, in five years, to take up and cancel the existing legal tender notes.

Chicago Tribune (rep.). The president's present plan is sound and it is the only sensible plan that will insure immediate relief. Representative Chapman has introduced a bill to carry it into effect, and it is to be hoped that the republicans in congress will be able to support it.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Chicago Herald (dem.). The president's plan goes to the root of the whole matter without opening the question of state bank circulation or circulation based on anything but the United States dollar.

Inter Ocean: He-I could believe that this was one of mother's own pies, dear. She could you, really, darling? He-Yes; it tastes as if it had been made about ten years ago.

Washington Star: "Fried," said Uncle Eben, "am I to be chiding what bakin' powder am I to be cooking? You can't raise a right wittin' it, but too much an swine ter spile 'em sho'."

Somerville Journal: Women on daily newspapers are having a hard time, now that their matter has been set on linotypes. Italic is impossible with the linotype machine.

Harper's Bazar: Mr. Dunn (unpaid bill to his hand)—When shall I call again Mr. Owen? Mr. Owen—Well, it would hardly be proper for you to call again until I have returned the present call.

Life: The New York Girl—Lord Dunsley, did you ever hear the joke about the museum-keeper who had two skulls of St. Paul, one when he was a boy and the other when he was a man? Judge—Well, the Englishman—No; what is it?

Atlanta Journal: Judge—I understand the plaintiff is suing for a horse. Attorney—You're right, but there seems to be a hitch about the evidence. Judge—Well, you can't saddle the responsibility on the court. Let the case proceed.

Detroit Free Press: "I'm so sorry supper isn't ready," said Mrs. Dunsmore to her husband when he came in. "I attended the meeting of the sewing circle this afternoon and I couldn't get away." "Hemmed in, were you?" asked her husband.

New York Recorder: There is great economy of time in laziness. So many things never need to be done at all if you put 'em off.

Philadelphia Record: "This is surely a cold snap," growled the dog as he missed his cat and buried his teeth in a cake of ice.

ON THE STREET. Cleveland Plaindealer. An aged, stubborn man was he, with a head of silver hair and a beard. And this, in croaking tones to me He said, "I love the snow!"

So kindly nature helped him, then, 'Till he fell his perspiring brow. For when I looked on him again, I saw him wrong end up.

THE MAIDEN AND THE BURGLAR. Youngstown Vindicator. She was a maiden, cool but forty, Unsmiled by a dream of man; No thought, however slightly naughty, Had ever crossed her life's short span.

Till one dark night, when all were sleeping, She found a pistol lying on the floor. For underneath her bed lay peeping, A poor, lone burglar freshly caught.

She locked the door and quickly turning Filled forth a pistol fully cocked. And with a voice that told its yearning, Her prisoner's plight she sternly mocked.

"Now listen to my ultimatum: You've got to marry me or die. Though you're a miserably low stratum, I'll have a husband, or know why."

Then rose the burglar, sadly speaking: "Your proposition does not suit. Rather than be the man you are seeking, Why, darn you, madam, darn you, shoot!"

Hypochondriacal, despondent, nervous, "tired out" men—those who suffer from backache, weariness, loss of energy, impaired memory, dizziness, melancholy and discouragement, the result of exhausting diseases, or drains upon the system, excesses, or abuses, bad habits, or early vices, are treated through correspondence at their homes, with uniform success, by the Specialists of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. A book of 136 large pages, devoted to the consideration of the maladies above hinted at, may be had, mailed securely sealed from observation, in a plain envelope, by sending 10 cents in one-cent stamps (for postage on Book), to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, at the above mentioned Hotel. For more than a quarter of a century, physicians connected with this widely celebrated Institution, have made the treatment of the delicate diseases above referred to, their sole study and practice. Thousands, have consulted them. This vast experience has naturally resulted in improved methods and means of cure.

BROWNING, KING & CO. RELIABLE CLOTHIERS. Your Money's Worth or Your Money Back. Great value ever. Heard of in this town in a Suit-Overcoat or Ulster. We place in the $10 lot Some of the best goods in the house. Corresponding reductions in the children's department, and men's $6 and $7 pants at $2, $2.50, $3, $3.75. BROWNING, KING & CO., Reliable Clothiers, S. W. Cor. 15th and Douglas.